

Hood Faber HIGH-LIGHT WH matt 910

Ordering code: HIGH-LIGHT-910_WH

An elegant, ultra-slim panel lights up all along its edge, becoming the “beating heart” of every model. High-Light, the innovative model with built-in design recessed in the ceiling, is marked by a thin steel panel with “thin and light” lines and volume. It is the perfect hood for furnishing an island cooking hob. Fitted out, moreover, with the powerful Evo Motor that, with its geometries that have been optimised by applying the latest studies of fluid dynamics, guarantees better results in terms of energy efficiency and reduced noise.
